

Privacy statement

Alsager U3A takes care to store your data securely and to store and use your personal information only for the purposes set out below.

- to manage annual membership
- to manage membership payments
- to manage gift aid payments
- to enable communications with the membership or subsections of the membership
- to enable communications between group leaders and their group members
- to have available data for HMRC purposes